

Oracle DBA Job Description

Is responsible for fully supporting Oracle databases to; ensure availability, performance and security.

Personal Spec

Proven experience of Oracle Database Administration

Able to manage multiple RDBMS on large systems

Proven track record of delivering a high availability service, including monitoring and tuning, within a team environment

Knowledge of other database systems such as SQL Server

Practical experience of internal and external MS SQL database security management

Oracle certification (OCP)

Duties & Responsibilities

Ensure availability and performance of the databases that support the system

Ensure services are secure with minimal downtime by proactively monitoring database systems

Provide the Service Management team with regular trend analyses, allowing them to make informed decisions regarding resources

Responsible for passing problems to the Oracle Development team and any relevant third parties

Responsible for maintaining and improving the databases including roll out and upgrades

Implement database changes made by the development team and release