

Web Developer Job Description

Responsible for the creation and design of websites according to client specifications

Personal Spec

Proven track record in Web and Database Development

Comprehensive experience of ASP, JSP, Javascript, CSS, (X) HTML, SQL Server or MySQL and strong database knowledge

Flexible team player

Good communication skills and meticulous approach

Graphic Design & Web Design skills would be desirable

Duties & Responsibilities

Design and develop corporate website including web pages, graphics and animation, ensuring strong functionality and optimisation.

Develop web page infrastructure and applications relating to pages with more complex graphics and features

Design and develop relational database systems and their web interfaces

Responsible for the integration of the SQL Server database with company website

Monitor web server and site technical performance

Assist company with Web development strategy and SEO